Tutoring Experience

I have over 10 years of experience tutoring IB Psychology. My journey began shortly after completing my Master's degree, where I discovered my passion for teaching. I have had the pleasure of working with a diverse range of students, each with their unique strengths and challenges. Over the years, I have developed a teaching style that emphasizes critical thinking and practical application, ensuring my students not only understand the material but can also apply it effectively in their exams. My sessions are interactive and student-centered, designed to build confidence and academic excellence. I have successfully guided many students through the intricacies of the IB Psychology syllabus, helping them achieve top grades and secure places at prestigious universities. My approach is holistic, considering not just the academic aspect but also the emotional and motivational factors that contribute to a student's success.
